Celebrating The Life Of Gwendolyn Rebecca Spann:

Gwendolyn Rebecca Spann was born on September 1, 1936 in Detroit Michigan, to the union of the late Elder Levy Moses Miles and Fannie (Robinson) Miles. She was the youngest of nine children: Birdelle Alcenia, Zelma Ruth, Levy Moses Jr., Louise Elizabeth, Esther Naomi, Sarah Rita, Joann Dorcus, and Simeon Enoch.

She was baptized at an early age and became a member of the Apostolic Church of God in Christ Jesus of which her father the late Elder Levy Moses Miles was the pastor.

Gwen was educated in the Detroit Public School system. She was a lifelong member of the Sampson Elementary School and the Northwestern High School Alumni Associations.

Gwen married the late Gerald Spann and to that union two lovely daughters were born: Alece Gerralyn and Sheila Jo.

Gwendolyn worked at Ziegler Hospital as a Radiation Technician. After retirement Gwen, or "Ba" as she was affectionately known, a sincere, loving, unselfish and compassionate caregiver, cared for her Mother, Brother, and Aunt. However, she did not stop there, Gwen always made sure that when you came to her house, whatever you desired, was there for you.

“ Granny was such a delight. When I think of her and Joi I believe Joi was Granny's and Natalie picked her up everyday to spend the night. Granny always said call if you need me. I responded what you do, she laughed and said 'I can pray can't I?'

“ I have so many good memories of Aunt Gwen there are too many to talk about but the most special memory I always loved about Gwen is that she was loving kind and caring. I always loved going to her house because she always told some good jokes, cooked and made me feel special and at home. I can hear her voice now calling me Judy Karen or Coldsno. Gwen you will forever have a special place in my heart. Love you always.
