

Mr. Harold Andrew James

April 17, 1930 - February 13, 2019

His Story:

Harold Andrew James “Boo” was born on April 17, 1930, in Chattanooga, Tennessee to his parents Clarence Anthony James Sr. and Theresa Lucille Adams.

Harold James accepted Christ at an early age and continued his spiritual journey studying with the Jehovah's Witnesses. Harold received his education in the Tennessee Public Schools system. After high school, he actively served two years as a Private in the military from 1949 to 1952 where he received an honorable discharge. Harold was employed by Wa-Kay Steel Industries as a Foreman where he retired in 1995. He was a devoted sports fan and a die-hard fan of the Detroit Lions or “Motor City Kitty’s” that he referred to them fondly. He enjoyed attending sporting events and watching baseball, basketball and football on television with his family and friends.

Harold departed this life on February 13, 2019.
