September 8, 1933 - November 8, 2017

His Story

Harold Powers:

On the eighth day of September in the year of our Lord 1933 in Detroit, Michigan, God in His infinite wisdom leaned over the balcony of time and blessed Horace and Bessie Mae with a son. To this son the name Harold was bestowed. Harold was the second child born to his parents. His brother Melvin, his sister Angie and his parents preceded him in their heavenly transition.

As a young man, Harold attended Unity Baptist Church with his family and accepted Christ at an early age.

Harold was educated in the Detroit Public School system and graduated from Chadsey High School in 1951.

Harold enlisted in the United States Army on July 7, 1952. He ranked as a Private 1st Class during his tour of duty and bravely fought in the Korean War. He was the recipient of a bronze medal for his diligent service. He was honorably discharged on May 19, 1954.

Harold belonged to a social club called "The Syndicate." On September 24, 1955 Harold married the love of his life Thelma Cletus Bryant. The result of this union created a true blessing, their daughter Rochelle.

Throughout his lifetime Harold had several occupations. He was employed by Stroh's Brewery and served as a parking attendant for the Book Cadillac Hotel. Harold retired from the United States Postal Service after thirty years of service as a mail carrier.

Harold enjoyed watching old movies, playing the lottery and spending time with family and friends. The most memorable thing about Harold was his vivid imagination and the stories he could tell. According to him he was F.B.I. and he did carry a badge (wink wink).

On Wednesday, November 8, 2017, Harold made his Heavenly transition.
