

Mrs. Hattie Mae Laymond

October 5, 1957 - October 26, 2017

Celebrating The Life of Hattie Mae Laymond:

Hattie Laymond was born on October 5, 1957 in Jacksonville, FL to mother Annabelle Gardner, who preceded her in death, and father Ernest Vickers. Hattie graduated from Andrew Jackson High School and attended Florida Junior College of Jacksonville. In 1974, Hattie met and married the love of her life Donald Laymond. Within that union, four children were born, Charles Laymond, Donald Laymond Jr., Michael Laymond and Heather Laymond.

Moving from Jacksonville, FL to Detroit, MI in the late 1970's, Hattie built a life that many would dream of and accomplished what some could not do. Holding many leadership and managerial positions throughout her life, Hattie retired from Sears as an Assistant Store Manager where she not only used her eye for fashion, but she was able to help those around her and anyway possible, which she loved to do. There aren't enough words to describe the kind of wife, mother and woman that Hattie was and still is. Passionate, loving, intelligent, generous, classy, beautiful and feisty are just a few. When she smiled, the whole room would light up and when she spoke, she meant what she said. Always available to help in anyway possible, Hattie was someone you can always count on, often giving her last so that others will be ok.

“ Hello Don,

Brenda and I are so sorry for you and your children's loss. To me, you've always had a strong sense of family. Even gone, Hattie will remain at the core of all that. I regret not living closer so that I could offer my condolences in person.

Best regards,

“ Beautiful, generous, noble, fun, wonderful Mother, amazing Wife, quiet, sure and true. She walked with humility and wisdom tucked in Her breast. Hattie, You carried all of these delightful attributes. Hattie is still blessing us through Her and Don's beautiful offspring, Charles, Ray, Michael, Heather and even little Moriah. You are all Her greatest gift to this world. You have each faced this with amazing strength and beauty. Your precious Mother has now passed Her legacy onto each of you. The world is a better place because of Hattie. Love you Hattie and thank you.
