

Mrs. Hazel Lee Jones-Lane

July 9, 1945 - September 17, 2023

In Loving Memory Of

Hazel Lee Jones-Lane was born on July 9, 1945 to Mid and Jennie Bell Jones in Vossburg, Mississippi. Hazel was the second oldest of four girls.

Hazel attended Detroit Public Schools and received her formal education at Northwestern High School. She also received her associates degree from Wayne County Community College in Psychology. Hazel was always reading books, word searching, or baking a cake. Hazel was also known for her sweet spirit and sense of humor.

Hazel accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was baptized in Vossburg, Mississippi. The Jones family moved to Detroit in 1954 where they joined Aijalon Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Horace Clark. Hazel later joined Kadesh Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. James H. Williams. Hazel served faithfully on the Trustee Board and sung in the choir under the leadership of Rev. Gregory Foster, Sr. Hazel also became a member at Christian Tabernacle Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. James Morman. While at C-Tab, Hazel sung in the choir until she returned to her home church Kadesh and served as President of the Mother's Board under the leadership of Rev. Gregory Foster II. Hazel was employed with Princeton Management until her death.

Hazel loved her family, friends, church, and her coworkers. She was dedicated to her church and to Princeton Management. She loved to bake 7UP Pound Cakes, cook, and enjoy life.
