“ Condolences to the Tolbert and Wilson families. Heleana and I go “way” back. In the early years we lived within walking distance, attended the same church, and were schoolmates from elementary school through high school. I last saw her 2 years ago at Cass Tech’s Class of ‘73 reunion. I will treasure those memories.

“ My condolences to Mark Wilson and the Tolbert family. I'm going to miss Helena coming to Cincinnati for the Annual Music Festival in Cincinnati. She was so laid back and so much fun to be around. You will be truly missed by me and your loved ones. I'm in disbelief and heartbroken to hear this sad news, but God works in mysterious ways and knows what's best and when it's time to call us home.

I love you, Helena, you were not only a sister-friend, but also part of my Detroit family. May God bless and comfort you all during this difficult time.

With love,

Dawn Jackson (Cincinnati, Ohio)
