“ What a rich blessing we shared in having Cousin Helen in our lives! Our Savior is aware of the dark days in our lives. And as His heart breaks because of our pain during bereavement, Jesus makes us aware of His abiding presence through His Holy Spirit; leading, guiding, always sustaining, until the hurt washes away to thankfulness and praise!

It is my sincere prayer that her children and grands, rest in the everlasting arms of Jesus. May your hearts find peace in the Savior's gift of everlasting life for all who accept Him as Savior as Cousin Helen did, gives us hope and comfort. It is our joy and praise to say, not "Goodbye," but "Until Then!"

*Prayers and Love,

“ May god comfort you at such a difficult time. It is never easy when you loss a love one. But it is even harder when you loss a mother, the matriarch of your legacy. I pray that you find comfort in knowing she loved the lord with all of her heart. And now she is resting in his mercy grace and his favor. Janice L. Harlin-Williams
