“ To the Mays Family, Our deepest sympathy goes out to you during this time of sadness, may you find comfort in the warmth shared by your friends and loved ones. Just remember that as long as we live, he will live; for he is now a part of us as we remember him in our hearts. God's blessing.

“ To Earlene and family, may the God of All Comfort, wrap His loving arms around you during this time and bring peace to your hearts. May the love and prayers of friends and family be a source of strength. May the many memories of the times shares bring joy and laughter in the midst of the tears. Know that you and the family are in our prayers.

P.S.

Thank you Earlene for introducing and sharing your husband Henry with me and my family. I will never forget the advice that Chef Henry gave to my youngest son, Cevin (who was 7 years old at the time) while we waiting for our food... He said follow your passion because it will never be a chore or a job when you do what you love. Just to let you know, my son is a Chef, one of his passions is cooking...

PSS

I hope someone has the recipes for the way only Chef Henry could cook up a meal...

My favorites: Smothered pork chops, catfish, BBQ with or without sauce, MACARONI AND CHEESE, just to name a few LOL

Love you more

“ Dear "old" friend and fellow co-worker, Earlene: So sorry to hear about the passing of your husband. I am sure that he, too, was a fine person just like you! Death, as you know, is never easy, and usually sad. But...when you think of the "much better place" where they are now, well, that always seems to help a persn feel muuuuch better! I send to you and your family my sympathy. Sincerely, Ed Vogel
