

Mr. Henry Lewis Robertson

March 28, 1941 - March 9, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Henry Lewis Robertson:

Henry Lewis Robertson was born on March 28, 1941 in Moro, Arkansas to the late Charlie and Connie Mae (Knox) Robertson. Henry was the only child born to this union.

"Hank," as he was affectionately called by his family and friends, moved to Pontiac, Michigan with his parents when he was very young. He attended Pontiac Public Schools from elementary through high school and was well known throughout the community. He excelled in athletics and was a star player for Pontiac Central High School's basketball team. After graduating from Pontiac Central High School in 1960, he attended Bethune - Cookman College. Later, Hank began working at General Motors (Pontiac Motors Division) where he was employed for 30 years, retiring in 1992.

In October of 1972, Hank married Dianne L. Fuller. This marriage was blessed with one child, Charles Alexander, another dimension to his father's life. Hank and Dianne were married for 45 years.

Hank was an independent thinker with a strong will. He was an avid reader who enjoyed various types of literature. Hank also enjoyed exercising and engaging in current event discussions. One of his greatest loves was listening and collecting music.

Henry rededicated his life to Jesus Christ and knew Him as his personal Lord and Savior. Henry Lewis Robertson went home to be with the Lord on March 9, 2018.

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Henry Lewis Robertson

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ To Diane and David My Prayers Are With You At This Most Difficult Time Of Your Life I Ask God To Allow You To Grieve But Give You The Strength To Heal And Continue To Live Your Life's As Henry Would Want You To.

Paula and Horatio

paula donald - March 25, 2018 at 06:33 AM