“ Joyce and Kimberly, my sincerest condolences. This is hard I know, but Henry is watching over you both and God's helping hands will get you through the tough times to come. Bask in the many beautiful memories of Henry. He was such a wonderful husband, father and person, a great friend to so many of us. He lived a magnificent life, caring and respecting everyone he encounters. We will miss Henry tremendously, but we will celebrate the honor and privilege to call this wonderful man our friend. God Blessing my dear 'sister' and 'neice'. May you Rest In Peace Henry!

“ Dear Joyce and Kimberly, John, Faith and I are so saddened by Henry's passing. He was one of the nicest people we were blessed to know. I know your son and other family members have welcomed him home with open arms. It doesn't make saying good-bye any easier. His word and our faith tells us we will be reunited and we will be whole again. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Cathy, John and Faith
