

Mr. Horace Hicks

October 15, 1946 - January 5, 2015

His Journey:

Horace Hicks was born October 15, 1946 in Yemassee, South Carolina. He accepted Christ at an early age. Horace graduated from Southeastern High School on January 29, 1965. He attended some college and studied accounting.

Horace was a veteran of the Vietnam War. He was a military policeman. He worked at General Motors in the accounting department. He retired in 2001.

He loved sports and walking Northland Mall with the Northland walkers.

His hobbies were decorating houses, especially his own Christmas trees. Every year he decorated Camille Johnson's tree and her parents and any other thing you wanted.

Horace departed January 5, 2015.

“ Horace I will always remember you for your kindness and always willing to help a fellow employee. You answered the nations call in a very trying time and I salute you one veteran to another. You will certainly get to heaven as we spent our time in hell in Vietnam. Don Martindale

One of the mall walkers texted me about an hour ago to tell me of Horace' home going. I met Horace a few years ago as a Northland Pacer. He and i became walking buddies. I always enjoyed talking with him and listening to what he had plans on cooking. He would always mention his cousin and how considerate he was about the food around the house he had cooked. He was telling me about a couple of chairs he had re-covered and was real pleased with. He always had interesting topics to discuss. As of late i had not seen him at the mall. I sent him an email to inquire, as to how he was doing but he never responded. Horace was a true gentleman and i'm grateful to have met him. I will miss him sitting on the bench at the mall. But not to worry,, i will see Horace again. When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing it will be. When we all see Jesus we will sing and shout victory.

*Rest in Peace

“ I have known Horace for more than 30 years. We have shared many wonderful times and conversations over the years. He was always full of humor and great advice. He had a gift for being a great listener. Horace was a great cook and nobody could make macaroni and cheese like he did. When my father died, Horace was at the funeral. My mother died 2 years after my father, and Horace honored me by serving as a pall bearer at my mom's funeral. I will never forget him and I treasure our friendship. I loved him as a true friend. I will miss him but I know that I have an ally in Heaven who will be there to greet me when I arrive there someday. May the angels come to greet you dear friend, and may they take you to that heavenly city where God has prepared a place for you Horace. God Bless You! Sincerely, Joe Cracchiolo
