

Mr. Howard House Jr.

January 31, 1966 - September 12, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Howard House Jr. was born on January 31, 1966 in Warrenville Heights, Ohio. He was the first son born to Howard and Evelyn House. His parents moved to Detroit where he began learning about Jesus at Tabernacle Nursery school. Howard Jr. accepted Christ at an early age.

In high school, he was curious about the tall man who walked around the building to see if everything was working well. That man was a Stationary Engineer. Howard Jr. graduated from Mumford High School and became a Stationary Engineer.

Howard Jr. was employed with the City of Detroit as a stationary engineer, until he retired. Howard Jr. had fond memories of maintaining the lights in the Scott Fountain on Belle Isle Park.

Howard Jr. met the love of his life, Rene Dragg, and together they had five children, Christina, Howard III, Ciera, Curtis, and Christopher. Howard Jr. loved to cook and prepare meals for his family. He taught his children how to cook, too. Howard Jr. made family mealtime an important part of their day.

Howard Jr. favorite activity was working on cars in the backyard. Howard Jr. enjoyed touring Detroit and other cities with his family.

God took Howard Jr. home September 12, 2024 as he slept. Howard Jr. leaves to cherish his memory: Rene(wife); Christina, Ciera, Howard III, Curtis, and Christopher(children); Howard and Evelyn (parents); Everett (brother); 11 grandchildren; and a host of nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
