

Ms. Hyla Laverne Hills

April 13, 1960 - May 28, 2016

Celebrating The Life Of Hyla Laverne Hills:

First, I give thanks to God for allowing me to share these wonderful years with my Mom.

Hyla Laverne Hills, daughter of the late Frank and Florene Hills, was born April 13, 1960 in Mobile, Alabama.

She professed her faith in Christ at an early age.

Hyla graduated from Central High School and worked at the family store Hills Market and later she branched off to become a clothier providing the hottest fashion.

Hyla Boo loved to sing, especially songs from the late 70's, early 80's, as well as gospel. She was well known for her passion for being right; and her love for children. Hyla Boo had a giving heart and a joy of dancing, especially with her beautiful daughter. She loved family and teaching children, she also loved and participated in sporting activities, and engaging in a good argument. Hyla had an outgoing personality and everywhere she went, people loved her spirit.

Hyla joined the Spiritual Training Center under Pastor Lemuel Appling and First Lady Tenessa Appling; she has blessed them with a 4 1/2 year journey. Hyla went to them clearly under Christian experience. She had a genuine love for Jesus as her personal Savior, God as her Heavenly Father and the Holy Spirit as her intimate friend. Hyla committed herself to STC from the moment she walked in, eager to learn. She completed reading the Bible two times on her own. She launched and participated in many outreach programs through STC Ministry. They all couldn't wait for her to sing during the Sunday Service, she sung with such passion that set the atmosphere. Hyla's desire is to love your church like she did, love God like she did, love your community like she did, and most of all love your family like she did.

“ I dare not nor will I ever question God’s decisions for he gave us life and in life we became one. I sit here reflecting on all the times we shared, we always claimed each other you were “My Cousin” and “I Yours” we never veered from that. It’s funny how we used to laugh at our younger cousins saying they could learn a lot from the love we shared and had for each other a bond made by God a bond that never could be broken. Even when we were apart we still stayed in contact through our letters, cards and silent prayers. I can’t thank God enough for blessing me to have a best friend in you that so happen to be my 1st cousin again I say 1st. Remember how when we were girls and we always performed for anyone that would sit still long enough to watch, you had the voice of and Angel little did they know, and I well I was the actress our favorite skit was singing HULAHULA to Francetta no matter how many times we did it she always cracked up watching each time like it was her first “Hey Francetta looked” a HULA HULA HULA we would sing as we did the island dance we had so many good times. I remember how you took me under your wings when I came to Central High coming from The University I was a fish out of water mann that was a big school but you waited for me in between classes making sure I didn’t get lost letting everyone know I was “Your Cousin”. I thank you for giving me peace while I’m here in American Samoa for not being there for a moment I felt alone you always had my back; I knew I was going to be okay when you showed up smiling saying Darlean we could always find each other no matter what “what was up with that yellow dress saying it was yours” you must have known I packed mine “weird” we were always good like that we both cracked up and then we looked at each other as we do and just like that I fell asleep or was I sleep. I your cousin and you mine love each other to the moon and stars and back again. MY HYLABOO...
