

Mrs. Idella Rowan

April 19, 1923 - May 6, 2016

Celebrating The Life Of Idella Rowan:

Idella Davis was born on April 19, 1923 in Brighton, Alabama to the union of the late Reverend James Davis and Lehoma Davis. She was the fourth of 16 children, 12 of whom survived to adulthood.

Idella accepted Christ at an early age, was baptized and joined Mars Hill Baptist Church. She was educated in the Bessemer Public school system. After that she worked at Lane Hospital.

Idella left Alabama in 1949 to take residence in Detroit, Michigan and went to work in the hospitality industry.

She met and married Bernard Rowan, Sr. in 1950 and became Idella Rowan. To this union was born two sons, Bernard Rowan, Jr., and Doyle Rowan.

She joined Adjalon Baptist Church in 1952 and served as a loyal parishioner for many years. Idella later worked for Columbia Medical Hospital ten years and later Crown Packing Company until she was injured on the job in 1971.

Idella was active in community affairs including block club, March of Dimes, and union steward at Columbia Hospital.

Idella was dedicated to her family, the future, and her faith.

Idella departed this life on May 6, 2016.
