

Mrs. Indie Laura Rowe

May 5, 1930 - September 14, 2014

In Loving Memory Of Indie Laura Rowe:

Indie Laura Morgan was born May 5, 1930 in Detroit, Michigan, the third of seven children of Harper Morgan Sr. and Margarie Dozier Morgan. Three of her siblings preceded her in death: Harper Jr., Larry and Lula "Betty."

She graduated from Northeastern High School in January of 1948 and from the Fairbank School of Dressmaking as a professional seamstress. She met, fell in love and married Rosfelt Rowe Jr. on July 17, 1954. They had five children.

Indie was raised in a Christian home, accepted Christ at an early age and was a devoted lifelong member of Metropolitan Baptist Church, where she served on the Number 2 Usher Board, the Vantella Robinson Auxiliary and taught Sunday school for over 50 years. She enjoyed sewing and made many dresses, suits, drapes and other items for both family and friends. She was a devoted wife, mother, sister, aunt and friend, and always greeted everyone with a warm smile and a kind word.

“ Thank you Holly and Toni for sharing mom Rowe with me. Your parents are beautiful people and the apples don't fall far from the tree. I thank God for the lives she touched and the love she shared and I thank Him that He alone knows when it's time to cease from our labors and take our rest. Bless you all as you continue to carry the legacy she left with you and I praise God for the time I shared with her. We love you everyone; I pray for your comfort and strength as you remain in my prayers!
