

Mrs. Inether Carter

March 18, 1927 - June 8, 2014

Inether Durkee Carter was born March 18, 1927 to the parents of Embrey and Dossie Durkee in Fredrick, Oklahoma. She was an only child. Inether grew up around numerous cousins to whom she felt were her brothers and sisters.

She lost her mother when she was very young. Her father, along with aunts, uncles, and grandparents came together to help raise her. She had her first child named Beverly at a young age. Not knowing a lot about motherhood she did the best that she could to love and take care of her.

She soon met an Army soldier named Kyle Carter. They were married May 31, 1944. They moved to Roanoke, Virginia and later had three more children: Diane, Donnie and Kyle. Raising four kids in a different state away from her Oklahoma family was extremely hard. Her strong faith, love and motherly instincts got her through the hardest of times. She continued to guide and comfort her children through life's difficult journeys.

Inether was a devoted church attendee with all of her children. The First Baptist Church of Roanoke, Virginia. She loved to sing and was a member of two choirs.

Inether also loved to dance and would always jump at the chance to show off her dancing skills. She always said that her entire family was her extended brothers and sisters. She would always embrace and welcome new family members and establish a loving and close relationship. Her family will continue to love and miss her.

She has laid a great foundation of family who she taught to stand tall and continue to be proud of who you are and where you came from.
