“ The kindest woman I've ever known. Her home was a safe haven for foster children and she loved us as though we were her own. She was a beautifully talented seamstress and I'll love her for the rest of my life. Although my memories are 43 years ago, she touched my life in a way that would take forever to share. I only remember her neices Nancy & Cissy who braided my hair, but I hope if anyone else in her family reads this it will bring them joy knowing she's remembered fondly and with great love. Kathy

“ My condolences to the family on your loss. May you find some solace in the thought expressed at Revelation 21:3,4. Soon death will not be.
