“ Last Sunday I passed the Williams home on Beechwood. I told my friend that Elaine was so dear to me. When we were in High School I would go to her home for lunch and Mrs. Williams would make a pot roast that would melt in your mouth. Elaine knew I loved her mom cooking. I guess that’s where she learned how to cook. Family remember “Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning.” My condolences to the family. Maria Jordan Peoples
