

Mrs. Isabelle Janet Tucker

April 19, 1933 - March 4, 2019

Her Story:

Isabelle “Janet” Tucker was born on April 19, 1933 to the union of Daisy Franklin and Linwood Clark. She was born in Charlotte, North Carolina and raised in Alexandria, Virginia. She was educated in the Alexandria, Virginia Schools system. In Alexandria, Janet was united in marriage to Fischer “Bug” Tucker Jr. on February 8, 1952, the love of her life. They moved to Detroit, Michigan in 1954, where they raised their children Lois, George, Donna, and Fischer III.

Janet made everyone feel welcomed and loved whenever they were in her presence. She had a wonderful sense of humor that stood the test of time with every generation. She always had a smile on her face and always reminded her family how much she loved them. Some of her famous quotes are “Do your best no matter what,” “Take care Baby Doll,” “Everything is going be alright,” and “Who did it? I am gonna get them.”

Janet worked at Fort Wayne Induction Center, University of Detroit, and Sperber’s Catering Company. However, her best and most important job was being a homemaker “Domestic Goddess.”

On Monday, March 4, 2019, the Lord called Isabelle “Janet” Tucker home.
