

Mr. Isiah Gamble

August 28, 1943 - April 19, 2016

Isiah's Journey:

Isiah Gamble was born on August 28, 1943 Prichard, Alabama to Annie and Sant Gamble.

He attended Alabama School System. He was known as “Mr. Fix It.” He loved fixing everything and would tell you how to fix your own things. He had a business mowing lawns and baking cakes. He was your all around godly man. He loved God, life and his family. He was known for his calm spirit and low-toned voice. He always expected people to understand what he meant the first time. He never liked repeating himself.

He gave his life to Christ in the hands of Apostle Harold Johnson.

Isiah married his “Sweets” in 1965. They've been each other's backbone since they raised their two children together, Izina and Isiah.

He was known everywhere as, “Mr. Gamble.” A loving, caring, fun spirited, devoted, God-fearing warrior.

Mr. Gamble loved being around his family, fixing things and baking. He was faithful in his church ministries. He transitioned his life to God on April 19, 2016. The sisters and brothers that preceded him in death are: Dorothy Mitchell, Everlee Gamble, Minnie Lee Myrant, Livera Davis and Willie Mae Evans; one son, Isiah R. Gamble also preceded him in death.
