

Mrs. Jacqueline Denise Benjamin-Little

August 17, 1970 - August 5, 2025

Jacqueline Denise Benjamin was born on August 17, 1970 in Jackson, Mississippi to Isaiah Benjamin and Susan Bradshaw.

Jacqueline accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized later in life at Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church in Flint, Michigan.

Jacqueline attended Highland Park Public High School. While in high school, Jacqueline participated in choir, track, and co-opted as a sales associate at Sears. Jacqueline graduated from Highland Park High School in 1989. After high school, Jacqueline attended Highland Park Community College and received a medical billing certificate in 1990.

Jacqueline transitioned back to retail in 1991 and had very successful careers as a general manager with Winklemans, DOTS, TJ Maxx, Marshalls and DSW.

She received various accolades, achieving sales over 1 million dollars annually, including mentoring of sales associates. She was affectionately called, "Boss." After 34 years in retail management, she chose to be a stay at home wife.

She was joined in holy matrimony with spouse Stephen Little for 33 years.

Jacqueline's favorite hobbies were cooking, shopping, fine dining, and traveling to places such as Vegas, Dominican Republic, Germany, France and throughout the United States.

Jacqueline departed this life on August 5, 2025. She was preceded in death by: father Isiah Benjamin and brother Keith Benjamin.

She leaves to cherish her memories: spouse Stephen Little, mother Susan Benjamin, mother-in-law Margaret Wren, brother Kim (Precious) Bradshaw, sister Sylvia (Turean) Smith, brother Frank Ross, special aunts, Earlene Hammond, Stephanie Cavett, Brothers-in-law Edward Murray, Craig Wren, special cousin Willie A. Crawford, best friend Jacqueline Cooper, and a host of nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
