In Remembrance Of Our Jacqueline Gates Minor:

Jacqueline Gates Minor (Jackie) was born June 19, 1955 to the late Jasper and Dorothy B. Gates. Jackie was the third born of four children - Aundrea Jean Constanteina, Johnny Lee Sims Sr., and Darryl Gates Sr. She was preceded in death by Aundrea and Johnny.

Jackie received her education within the Detroit Public School system and graduated from Murray-Wright High School in 1973. She completed vocational training as a Licensed Nail Technician. She continued her studies at Highland Park Community College and Madonna University in Livonia, Michigan, where she majored in Gerontology. Jackie's entrepreneurial spirit guided her to start a traveling nail service business, which she enjoyed. She met many people who loved her style and professionalism. Jackie exhibited outstanding customer service abilities, which led to various employments in corporate America from Highland Appliances, Federal Mogul, American Community Insurance and America Dental Network (ADN). She also volunteered at the Gleaners Community Food Bank. Jackie was acknowledged with many awards for her organization and thoroughness with the customers she served and she had a heart to serve. Jackie professed her love for the LORD at Triumph Church in Southfield, Michigan.

Jackie married Damier Minor in June 1980; they later divorced in 1987. Although Jackie didn't have children of her own, she played an active role in the lives of her family and friends. She loved and enjoyed her nieces and nephews. She attended every function they were involved in from dance recitals, to Little League baseball games, to birthday celebrations, to special milestones to graduations. She always showed an aunt's love and presence. Jackie was very family oriented. She was instrumental in planning the Haygood/Gates family reunions with her brother Johnny in 1989. She also enjoyed going to the movies and shopping.

Jacqueline was called home on January 2, 2017.
