

Mrs. Jacquelyn Yvonne Harris

August 10, 1948 - April 4, 2018

Celebrating The Life And Legacy Of Jacquelyn Yvonne Harris:

Jacquelyn Yvonne Harris, daughter of the late John and Beatrice Bremby was born in Newark, New Jersey on August 10, 1948 and transitioned to her heavenly home in Livonia, Michigan on April 4, 2018, when our merciful Father called her to return. Those closest to Jacquelyn referred to her as “Jackie, Grandma Jack-Jack, or Butter.”

Jackie was born and raised in Newark, New Jersey where she graduated from Barringer High School in 1966. She later attended Martlin Medical School in New Jersey and graduated as a Registered Nurse, following in her Mother’s and Aunt’s footsteps. She also loved bowling, where she met her late husband (Hurbie Harris Sr.), traveling and everything connected to her Springhill Church Family, where she grew closer to her Lord and Savior.

In 1968, Jackie moved to Detroit with her late parents, siblings (Sandra Clark and Walter Bremby Jr.), and late husband. She practiced nursing in various hospitals and clinics, within the now, Henry Ford Health System. She retired in 2015 after 45 years of continued service. While giving of herself and caring for others, Jackie also brought her Christian experience to Springhill Baptist Church, when she joined in 1996.

“ Mrs. Jacqueline Yvonne Harris has found her peace with God. She fought a good fight on this side. We pray fervently for Joe, Andrea, Hurbie, all of her grandchildren, and all of the many others who may be hurting at this time. May God grant you His unexplainable peace and comfort in knowing that Mrs. Harris is no longer suffering, but she's now made whole in the presence of our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ. We love you so much and continuously have you in our thoughts during this very difficult time. May God's strength prevail like never before.
