“ I will always remember living in the same building as my little cousin. We will run around and play video games together and play outside. She was like a little brother to me during that time. Even though as adults we weren't as close as I would have liked us to be, I'll always cherish those moments. I'm sorry that I didn't take advantage of the time that we had. Looking back on it when I saw you last year I wish I would have talk to you a little longer: . Rest in peace Cousin . I love you!
