

Mr. Jake Brooks

January 4, 1922 - November 4, 2013

Jake was born on January 4, 1922 in Orrsville, Alabama to the union of Willie and Lettie Brooks. Jake received his early education in the Alabama Public School system. Jake accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at an early age.

He enlisted in U.S. Navy where he served briefly until his discharge due to medical reason and he also served in the CCC during wartime World War II.

Jake met and married Hattie Mae Thomas. From this union three children were born: Bedia Joyce, James Edward and Carol Ann. Jake and his family moved to Chicago to join his brothers. Later Hattie and the children relocated to Detroit, Michigan and Jake remained in Chicago.

Jake retired from Kraft Foods, Inc. and worked in the Nabisco division as a baker. He enjoyed cooking and took great pride in showcasing his culinary skills. His early work experience included miner in Sayre, Alabama.

Jake joined Mt. Carmel Missionary Baptist Church in 1970 under the leadership of deceased Pastor Emeritus Reverend Joseph B. Felker.

He served as a faith member for more than twenty years serving in the following capacities: member of the Men's Fellowship, past chairman of the Annual Men's Anniversary for two years, Sgt. of Arms Senior Mission Society, chairman for the January Group/Club, chef for the many anniversaries, banquets and special occasions and music department playing the Conga drums.

Jake, a talented percussionist, enjoyed playing original tunes on his harmonica and Conga drums to the delight of the congregations. Jake also had a passion for ballroom dancing, displaying his smooth style, dancing the Foxtrot, Samba and Salsa. He enjoyed listening to music, especially Latin Jazz. The vibraphonist Cal Tjader was one of his favorite Latin Jazz musician.

He loved playing card games with he nephews Ivan, Marvin and Jeremy along with their cousins Jim, Julian and friend Anthony - all of whom Jake adored. To their amazement, Grandpa, as he was affectionately known, Won, the stakes the majority of times, pocketing all their change.

Jake made his transition November 4, 2013 after a valiant fight with failing health.

“ I will surely miss Jake's (Poppa's) words of concern, common-sense humor, and quiet personality. I can see him in my mind's eye, walking away with that swag in his walk that tells you he was a good dancer. My thoughts and prayers are with the Brooks family as they close Jake's life-chapter. Remember to keep those fond thoughts of Jake ever present and you will continue to feel his presence and reap the benefits of his wisdom.

“ Our love, prayer and condolence are with the Brooks/Brown family. I wish I could have been there, but circumstance kept me away. If you need anything, I'm only a phone call away.

John 14:1-3 "Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

“ *Bro. James:
Be assured of the love, prayers and admiration of your St. Cyprian's Episcopal Church family at this time of grief. We love you and have admired your labors of love among us and your journey in faith. Your father was blessed to have you as his son. Who you are bespeaks him.*

Know the consolation of our Lord Jesus Christ and accept the shoulders we make available for you to lean on.

Your mother and sisters too are blessed to have you as son and brother. We love them and feel they are a part of us. They have all stood by you in support of your works of ministry amongst us. May they too be comforted as we bear them to the Throne of Grace in prayer.

May his soul rest in peace as light perpetual shine on him.

With our love and prayers for His Richest Blessings.

The Rev. Dr. Donald M. Lutas

Your pastor, brothers and sisters.
