

Mr. James R. Campbell

March 27, 1929 - June 12, 2014

The Life And Legacy Of James Randolph Campbell:

James Rudolph Campbell was born on March 27, 1929 In Elkhart, Indiana to the late Herbert Rudolph and Alice Leola (Lyons). Eight siblings preceded him in death.

"Jimmy" received his education in the River Rouge Public Schools system. In high school, he was a member of the football and boxing teams.

At an early age, Jimmy accepted Christ. He attended St. John AME Church and served on the Usher and Trustee Boards.

Jimmy had the honor to serve in the United States Army and received an honorable discharge.

In 1959, he was united in holy matrimony to Barbara Ann Hardemon. He was the proud father of eight sons.

Jimmy was known for his generosity. He took pride in his appearance and was always well dressed and well groomed. In his earlier years, he loved cooking and cleaning the house. He was a proud father and was known to throw a love punch when keeping his sons in line. He also was a devoted husband to his late wife, Barbara.

On Thursday morning, June 12, 2014, God called Jimmy home.
