

Mr. James D Clark

November 27, 1947 - September 26, 2024

James Clark Jr., was born November 27, 1947, to Mable Clark (Jones) and James Clark in Currie, North Carolina. James came to Michigan with his brother Cecil and sister Viola in 1961, to live with their aunt Chester Yacob. James had a heart for Christ and a spirit to serve. He found fellowship at Abyssinia Interdenominational Christian Center under leadership of Gary Douglas Jr., where he and long-time friend Eddie Wilson served on the Deacon board.

James joined in holy matrimony with Maxine Clark (Crawford) on August 17, 1994, this union of 47 years raised 5 children together in love and faith in God. In his later years he found a church home at Cathedral of Faith Church under Pastor Lee Jackson where he was spiritually fed upon his earthly departure. James departed this life on September 26, 2024. He leaves to cherish his memory: wife Maxine; children Darnell, Lanee, Jenetta, Naquita and Crystal; grandchildren Dakaruis, Kariah, Jasmine, Takela, Amaya, Takeshia, Zoree and King; his brothers Lyndell (Sally), Cecil and sister Viola. Also, a host of Nieces, Nephew, grand nieces, nephews, family and friends.

May we find comfort in the memories and love we shared.

“ *We the family of the late Helen Jones Simpson from North Carolina send our sympathies and love to our loved ones on the passing of JD.
Our family chain has been broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, it will link together again. We love you all so much*
