

Mr. James Fegan

February 24, 1962 - December 14, 2018

My Story:

James Harold Fegan was born on February 24, 1962 in Samson, Alabama to James Anthony Williams and Sarah Nell Ivy.

James accepted Christ at an early age. He attended True Vine Temple of Christ, under the late Bishop Ezekiel Ward, whom he traveled with to many places and remaining faithful to the church.

In 2014 he started attending Greater Christ Temple under the leader, Bishop Carl E. Holland, until his health began to fail. But in his heart, he always talked about how he wanted to go back to church to see Bishop and Sister Holland.

James attended the Detroit Public School System. While in school, James played on the basketball team and took boxing at Kettering High School.

James graduated in the early 80s with his GED. He later attended ITT Institute for computers and business. He graduated with honors receiving his diploma in computers.

James was employed at Sherwood Foods (truck driver) for over 15 years. He was very dedicated to his job. Then he worked for Royal Transportation Co. as a bus driver for ten years. He suffered a stroke in 2009 and had to end up leaving on disability.

James' favorite sports he enjoyed most of all ... basketball and football.

James departed his life on December 14, 2018.
