“ I've been trying to put words together. Larry was my stepfather and I have so many wonderful family memories. From the first time he took me to Fayetteville and had me riding the tractor, playing with the baby chicks and eating cornbread and buttermilk. I would ride the bus with him sometimes up and down the same route because I was bored and all of my friends had the biggest crush on him. We watched him play baseball and he watched me try when I was in grade school. We always kept in touch and laughed about him watching Westerns and where he was going to next. From Six Flags in Texas to the Rustler restaurant every Thursday, my memories will last forever. Love you for being there for me and know that you are at peace with Moma Girdie, Papa Garland, Ronnie, Ray and Joe.

Love you forever,

Teresa (Andrea) Ransey Fizer, Atlanta

p.s. Here's a picture from the good old partying days, he was too clean!

“ It was always a special time when you and Uncle Joe, & Uncle Ronnie would come home to TN to visit momma (your sister). I remember watching Gunsmoke with you and laughing at Festus's sayings. I can't believe in 1 1/2 yrs we have lost momma, our brother Stanley and now you, Uncle Larry. You were loved tremendously and though there is an empty space in my heart, I know you are resting in peace. I love you.

“ Larry, you are and will truly be missed. As I used to say to you, you will always be family. I have had the pleasure of knowing you for a very long time, actually as a young girl. You were always fun to be around even with your sense of humor. You could always make us laugh at the silliest things but that was just being you. Thanks for all the memories! Rest in Heavenly Peace brother-in-law!

My deepest sympathy to the family. Larry was a wonderful man who loved life and loved people. There was never a dull moment when he and my beloved late husband, John L Hardy were together. Now they are together again and there is a lot of laughing going on!
