“ Mr. James Wingo will be greatly missed. He was one of my Father's best friends. He was an awesome friend to my father Michael Davis. Him and Mr. Karl Jackson and my dad were the three musketeers as I called them. To his family, I will be praying for you all.

“ James was a dear friend of my former husband, Karl Jackson. James and Karl took road trips yearly to visit friends. James would share his love of fishing by supplying the fish for Karls Fish Frys where all the old gang would get together for a good time. James was a good friend to Karl, visiting him often during Karls illness. He even painted a room at Karls request, during the last weeks of Karls life. During Karls illness, James was always there for me to help however he could or just to be a listening ear, which was often. Wingo, as we called him, will be missed.

“ To the family of James, I was truly sadden when I got the news that James had passed. I thought about how James would come to Salem & hang out with the family, then when we all move out to Ypsilanti he came here and never missed a beat. We shared many years of laughter and great fun. James will truly be missed RIP my friend "James"

*After the tears have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved ones who have passed, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us.

I met James exactly 40 years ago, I only knew him as "Wingo" . We had a picnic at Belle Isle last summer and we played dominoes, he was his always jovial self. I always thought he had a cool Swagger about himself.

I will always remember him as "That Guy" Cool Azz Wingo.

RIP my Brother
