“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn##imported-end##

“ To the Butler Family, I am so sorry for your loss. May you find strength and comfort through God word the Bible. Isaiah 25:8 God assures us that God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces and death will be no more. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Sierra##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. Please take comfort in the love and support from friends and family. Never miss an opportunity to tell your loved ones what they truly mean to you. May you find peace and comfort knowing Mr. Butler is not suffering. I hope the happier memories of his life help you endure the days ahead. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14, John 5:28 & 29, 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Butler family,
Please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. James Hugh. The bible holds out the wonderful hope of a future resurrection when it states at (Job 14:14)" If an able body man dies, can he live again..." The bible helps us to appreciate that this possibility will be a reality. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Butler family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ May the memories and love you shared with James help soothe the pain you are experiencing today. May God's promise of a resurrection and life without end bring your hearts much comfort in the days and weeks ahead knowing he always fulfills his Word. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4; Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
