

Mrs. Jane Westbrook

October 4, 1925 - March 27, 2019

The Life and Legacy Of

Jane Ruth Westbrook was born on October 4, 1925 in Charleston, West Virginia. She was the second child of three siblings to John and Birdie May Kennedy who preceded her in death. She confessed her faith in Christ at an early age.

After coming to Detroit, Michigan, Jane Kennedy and Leroy Westbrook were united in holy matrimony on June 14, 1946. She attended the Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Cass Technical High School. She continued her education and worked as a Licensed Practical Nurse.

Her life was a living legacy of caring and commitment. She worked for many years at Detroit General Hospital serving and helping others. She was quiet and kind. She loved to travel, write, and spent time reading and studying the bible daily. Jane loved family dinners and family visits.

Jane was quiet and kind and loved to make people laugh. She always said, "I wish I had Fifty Million Dollars." She loved to write short stories and enjoyed traveling to the Bahamas and traveling south including Florida. But deep inside, her number one joy in life was her family.

While in hospice at Beaumont Hospital, Jane departed this on Wednesday,

March 27, 2019 at 10:45 p.m. She was surrounded by family.
