“ My sister, Gail Timmons, had a truly special bond with Janelia. The friendship they shared was very unique. I too will miss the good times that we had. R.I.P. Janelia

“ My parents and Janeila parents were friends before they moved on Seebaldt St. This gave us a very special bond. The most thing that I admired about Janelia was her amazing strength. Through all the challenges in her life she lived each day enjoying life. My prayers go out to Wilbert, Malcolm and the entire Williams-Byrd family that God will give them strength through this difficult time.

“ Aww where do I begin... Mrs. JaNelia had quite a presence, so much so it shined through my computer screen. Yes at first I only interact with her on Facebook trying to figure out if we were some kin on the Benning side & when we exhausted that (she said well you just gonna be my niece anyway 😊) she became one of my biggest cake supporters (German chocolate was her favorite) ... I know JaNelia had to of ordered 20 cakes from me in the past 2 years, some for herself & some for family/friends. Sometimes multiple ones in the same week... LOL! She LOVED my cakes. 😊

So when I finally did met her in person I was taken aback by her slight appearance, oxygen tank & etc cause none that match the strength, spirit or determination to live life to it fullest that shown through to me via social media & on the phone...even as she shared with me all that she was going through I never saw any self pity or woo is me, just fortitude & love. 😊❤️

To her husband, children & family & friends (& her big cat) I pray for your strength/comfort during this grieving time but as I am sure you all know JaNelia would tell you in her little sassy way that she is alright now in the loving arms of her father cancer free, chemo/radiation free & pain free....cry if you must for the loss of her presence but be comforted by her newfound Peace.
