“ Your chipmunk cheeks, your love so deep.

Your heart you shared with so many.

You took me into your family's world and cared for me too, and our bond over the years and our talks helped to shape my life to be the caring person that God always wanted us to be toward others.

I'll always remember the silly laughs as you made up your slick jokes, and how you never got around to teaching me bid whist... you owe me

I'll always love and miss and cherish you forever.

Love your other daughter Karen.
