Janice was the third child born to the union of Mary Ann and Edmond Jackson on September 29, 1950 in Detroit, MI. Her parents along with her older sister Sandra Johnson and her younger brother Donnie Jackson preceded her in death.

Janice was educated in Detroit Public Schools and attended Central High School in 1965. During that time she met the father of her only child Cylinda Ann Jackson.

Janice took pride in care for others. In her early adulthood she worked for a nursing home.

She later decided to leave the medical field and became an examiner for the State of Michigan in 1991. During her time working as an examiner, she received many accolades for her achievements and several certificates of appreciation. She retired from the State of Michigan in 2011.

Janice had a gift and passion for cooking. She made miracles in the kitchen. The kitchen was her haven, nothing made her happier than to see her family and friends enjoy the meals that she made with love.

Janice leaves to cherish her memory her daughter Cylinda, daughter-in-love Shay, her oldest sister Cylinda, her sister-in-love Katie, her brother-in-love

Alvin Jr., her grandchildren Lakiea and Terrance, her great-grandson Christopher and many nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.
