

Ms. Janice Marie Rambo

September 18, 1949 - May 9, 2016

Janice Marie Rambo was born on September 18, 1949 to the late Lee and Odessa Rambo of Bay Springs, Mississippi. Janice Marie grew up in Bay Springs where she attended Bay Springs Vocational High School in Jasper County. She graduated in 1969. She was the 9th of 16 siblings of which two preceded her in death, Albert Lee, Rose Ulmer, and grandson, Darren.

She accepted Christ at an early age at Jerusalem Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Handy Keys. She sang in the Choir and attended Sunday School Bible Study. After moving to Detroit in 1971 she joined New Prospect Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Samuel Leon Whitney. She later renewed her membership under Pastor Wilma R. Johnson.

After high school graduation Janice Marie moved to Chicago, Illinois where she was employed by Zenith Television until the company closed its U.S. offices. She then moved to Detroit, MI where she obtained an Associate Degree in Early Childhood Education. She was then employed by Sleepy Hollow Day Care Center and the Rambo Day Care Center. Marie ended her working career with Sinai Grace Hospital in Detroit, Michigan.

Marie's biggest joy in life was taking care of her precious twins Stevie and Stephanie and later her grand and great grandchildren. Until her health failed, much of her retirement years were spent caring for her grandchildren. She was a member Eleven Jewels and the Purple Mystique's of The Red Hat

Society. Her favorite pastime was watching movies on the Hallmark Chanel, Garage Sales and attending the games of her favorite team, the Detroit Tigers with best friends Helen and Lavell Stribling.

Marie loved life and her family. Spending time with family was one of her biggest joys. Even when her health began to take its toll she always found the strength to take time for the family. After a long fought battle with diabetes and a heart condition, a storm she weathered with dignity and strength, because she never lost sight of her faith. She was called home to glory on Monday, May 9, 2016.
