

Ms. Janis DeShawn Tuggle

April 1, 1971 - June 26, 2013

Janis Deshawn Tuggle was born April 1, 1971 to Gwendolyn Tuggle (who preceded her in death) and Leon Tuggle, Jr. Janis was baptized at an early age.

Her early education years were spent in Detroit Public Schools. She attended River Rouge High School where she played basketball and ran track. She graduated in 1989. After high school Janis attended Oakland University for about two years.

In 1995, she started working at Chrysler Corporation where she continued to work until her death.

Janis' favorite pastime was winning tickets from the local radio stations and then giving them out to family and friends. She also loved to shop.

She will be remembered for her mothering angelic spirit, always kind and concerned for the well-being of others. She was also known for her captivating smile which would light up a room.

Janis was a proud mother of two beautiful daughters, Johnnice and Gwendolyn. Recently, Janis was so pleased and overcome with joy to see her oldest daughter graduate from high school. And of course, she was ecstatic about "Ducy" (Gwendolyn)!
