“ Please allow me to extend my deepest sympathy and condolences to the Bennett family. When I married Jan's brother Mark as a young girl, Jan was only fourteen years old and she was always excited to come and baby-sit for my daughter, Lisa. Jan had a special fondness for Lisa and, I suppose, for her Lisa was like her own real baby-doll. I remember most her infectious smile. Jan could light up a room with that smile. She seemed genuinely happy about everything! It was like she was constantly being tickled. I loved that about her. I think of that wonderful laughter she projected all the time. And although life continues to move forward for us all, and the smiles and laughter fade, my first memories of Jan's beautiful personality and smile are emblazoned on my heart for my lifetime. She was a loving daughter, sister and an adoring mother. Though years separated us, and conversations were few-my overwhelming feeling when we met over the years was just how much she loved her precious girls. May you all be blessed with the pleasant memories of her life, and may you find peace with God's blessings. Love, Rosalyn
