

Mr. Jarvis Delane Dickson

December 3, 1942 - January 29, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Jarvis Delane Dickson:

JARVIS DELANE DICKSON was born in Detroit, Michigan to the union of Cornelius and Elizabeth (Livingston) Dickson, and both preceded him in death. He attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Central High School.

Jarvis followed in the example of his parents and developed a relationship with Christ very early in his life. As he grew older, he continued to grow wiser and more passionate about his relationship with the Lord. He enjoyed talking about the Bible with anyone he met. He joined Springhill Baptist Church over 30 years ago, and he regularly attended Bible Study, Sunday School and Worship Service. He also served as a faithful usher with the Imperial Usher Ministry.

Jarvis was employed by General Motors for more than 30 years. He was an active member in Local 22 of the United Automobile Workers Association (UAW), and he continued to attend their annual functions during retirement.

Jarvis was blessed to find love and companionship with Norma Tyus. They shared memories and laughter for over 20 years. Jarvis and Norma loved fine dining, watching movies and traveling. Some of their favorite destinations included Hawaii, Mexico, California, Jamaica, Montreal and the Dominican Republic.

Jarvis loved his family and enjoyed remaining connected to all of his relatives. It was not uncommon for his family members to receive a phone call where he was saying “hello” and reminding them of his love. His love even extended to people outside of the family. He never met a stranger because he was so kind and outgoing.

Jarvis departed this life Sunday, January 29, 2017 at Botsford (Beaumont) Hospital.

“ To the Family of my friend Jarvis,

Life is But a Stopping Place

*Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the lord

I will miss his smile, his loving kind ways, but more importantly his Godly lifestyle.
