“ James and Jason the dynamic duo. Forever in my heart.

“ Our family is heartbroken to learn of Jason's death, or as he was known in our house, "Mr. B." We got to know Mr. B when our son Sam attended his Nerf camp at Hannah Community Center. The Nerf camps provided a great outlet of intense fun for Sam and his friends and they attended several years. Sam was thrilled when Mr. B offered him a job the next summer. That was Sam's first job and Mr. B was the ideal boss--generous and supportive, and even provided rides when the weather got bad. Our whole family enjoyed getting to know Mr. B and his sons. Our prayers are with his family and everyone else impacted by this loss. There are people you come across in life who make you feel like you're a better person just for knowing them. Mr. B was one of those people.

“ I was truly blessed and honored to work with Jason at OLHSA. His dedication, insight and unwavering integrity stood out in everything he did. He led with honor, humility and a deep compassion, especially for those who needed it most..but nothing mattered more to him than Charisse and his sons. He spoke so lovingly about them.. with pride and love! A true gentleman, gone far too soon. My heartfelt prayers are with his family .. RIP dear Jason. God has welcomed you home.

“ It was truly a blessing to learn, some years ago, that Jason, Charisse, and their three sons would be moving closer to our family. What I did not anticipate was the profound impact Jason would have on our two sons. He extended an incredible opportunity to them by inviting them to work alongside him and his sons through the Battle Royale Summer Nerf Camp. This was more than just a summer job, Jason was committed to teaching our boys valuable entrepreneurial skills, mentoring them with patience and care.

As the summers passed, the camp grew, and Jason consistently looked out for our sons when hiring new staff. We are deeply grateful for his guidance, and even more for his vibrant spirit and unwavering heart of servanthood. His kindness and generosity will always be remembered, and while we will miss him dearly, he will never be forgotten.

To Charisse, Justin, Jaylen, Jason Jr., and the entire Blanks family,

We are holding you in our hearts and prayers during this incredibly difficult time. May God’s love surround you with peace, and may His presence bring you strength, comfort, and healing in the days ahead.

With all our love and deepest sympathy,

Marcus, LaTonya (Rejoice), Malachi, and Malkolm Turner

“ I had the privilege of working with Jason through the CAHA Work Group and the Whole Person Committee. There are many people in this world, but Jason was truly different. He cared deeply about others—about their well-being, their hearts, and their lives—and he did it without any agenda. He was a shining example of what it means to love all people.

Jason’s smile was contagious, whether in a meeting room or on a Zoom call. He had a remarkable way of making everyone feel welcome, valued, and wanted in his presence. He made our Lansing community better, and he made my workplace better through his example, compassion, and support.

He will be deeply missed. Jason has left a lasting impact on my life and on countless others, and the good he brought into the world will not be forgotten.

Prayers lifted for Jason's family, especially his wife and children. May comfort, peace and the nearness of the Lord be with you at this time.

“ Jason had a way of making people feel at ease just by being himself. There was a gentleness in the way he greeted you, asked how you were doing, and truly listened to the answer. Even in brief moments, you could feel his kindness and his care for the people around him.

I will remember his calm presence, his genuine smile, and the way he treated everyone with respect and humanity.

I am holding his family and loved ones in my heart during this time and wishing them comfort, strength, and peace as they navigate this loss. May they feel surrounded by love and by the many lives he touched.

Sincerely,

Angelique

“ Jason was one of my favorite people and my big brother. His energy was upbeat, loving and contagious! He was literal sunshine! I remember Jason inviting me to present a nutrition workshop to an organization he worked for way back when I first ventured out doing community wellness workshops. It was such a thoughtful, supportive gesture. When our boys were small, Stanley, Jason, Charisse and I would get them together and spend quality family time that I remember being so peaceful and priceless. Charisse, I love you forever and am here for you. You have been an amazing wife, mom and woman and Jason's love for you and the boys is eternal. Your love for each other is and will remain a beautiful legacy.
