“ Jason, you were like a brother to me. You will be missed so much... but your legend, words and lessons will be carried on through every person that you came across in your life. They all are better people now for having you in their life no matter how short of a time it was. I don't know if I'll ever come across a guy like you again. I could always trust you and you were always there with an ear to listen or to just keep me grounded, like I was for you.. We shared many memories together.. We even picked up the nickname Salt and Pepper around these parts for how often we were together. Luckily, no one can take away those good times we shared away from me or any of us. I will never forget you and I will always have a spot in my heart for you. The office has been so quiet and seeing your seat empty in the corner just keeps reminding me that this is real. Just know that you were an amazing man and I can't wait to do our Sanford and Son dance again.. Till we meet again my brother. Farewell.

To Jason's parents- Bless you both. Thank you for raising such an amazing man. He talked about you guys all the time. I am so honored to have known your son and been a friend to him. And thank you for including me in a few of the pictures on the slide show. That was such an honor and made me smile and I know he is up there smiling down on us with that big ole grin. If you ever need anything please feel free to contact me. My thoughts are with you and the your family. Take care.

“ To Uncle Robert and Family: Below is a poem that I've written in hopes that it will provide you with comfort and strength during this difficult time...

Moments Like This
By Harold Jordan

*It is moments like this that truly tests
The faith that we place in He that created us,
As we so often, take for granted the love that He has for us.
It is not until the removal of that precious something or someone,
From our lives,
That we are forced to lean more on Him for healing.*

*It is moments like this when the only question that seems
To fill our consciousness is 'Why Lord'?
Only later to find that the answer to the question
Was to not have asked the question at all.
For we must never question His plans.*

*It is for moments like this that we should Look to Him to provide us with a serene heart and soul,
Blessed assurance, and his comfort,
While forging through this most difficult time,
And we should continue to pray that
He be a foundation of courage and strength,
For us to lean on as we heal.*

May God hold you near His bosom as you heal, and console you and your family during this time of sorrow.

We love you guys, and are here for anything that you need.

“ Jason I miss you dearly. Nothing but good times together and I thank god everyday for the times we have shared. All I have left is our memories to get me through. I have asked god everyday why ?? But I have realized he doesn't make mistakes he needed you and had bigger and better plans for you and that your job here was done. May god be with all of us your loved ones, family, friends, coworkers, associates and anyone else who's life you may have touched with your kind heart, beautiful smile, soft hands, and amazing personality. Missing you always.. You never said I'm leaving you never said goodbye, you were gone before we knew it and only god knows why. A million times I've needed you and a million times I've cried. In life I loved you dearly and in death I love you still, in my heart I hold a place that only you can fill. It broke my heart to lose you but you didn't go alone, As part of me went with you when GOD took you home. Your family has been in my thoughts and prayers. Rest Peacefully Baby..Fly with the angels..One day we'll be together again just like old times..
