“ Javion, I miss you so much already. I miss my friend that I could talk to and laugh with. It's so crazy, for some reason I still have hope that when my phone goes off its a text or call from your phone. I know that will never happen again and it's tears at my heart. I am trying to be strong because I know you are in a better place but I just want you to know that you will forever be in my heart and I will cherish all of the memories that we had and be glad that we got to spend a great amount of years in each others lives before God called you home. I know its a lil late now but I never did get a chance to respond to your last text you sent me, but my response is FASHO lol :) <3

“ My heart is so heavy. Cuz thank you for being a wonderful person to me. You always made me feel like I was truly part of the family and u thank you so much for that. I am really going to miss you Fa Sho. Riding past a few spots is really hard because it reminds me of you pulling up in the Monte Carlo. "Tears" I know you're in a better place and that God makes no mistakes. Thank you Lord for letting me spend time with one of your angels.

“ This still doesn't seem real. What I am going to miss most and remember always is Javion's bright smile and warm hugs of welcome whenever we'd come over to rehearse. Whether it was my husband and I together or separately he gave us the biggest hugs. He always had something funny to say and he was always COOL! Once he had his daughter, it was a RARE moment you didn't see her with him. May she ALWAYS know that her daddy LOVES her, hands down. . He was our BOY! HE was our dear friend's son. May God's peace and comfort be with his mom & dad, his baby girl, and the rest of his family and friends. May God keep you strong and bring you through this. Much love always to the Hall Family. ~

“ Hey little guy,

I remember watching you and your little sister when you were small. You were always so well-mannered. To see you grow up to be the great man that you were, was a gift from God. I Also remember when I invited you to my birthday party three years ago. You showed up at 10:00 with your boy and I saw you as I was coming out getting ready to pack the party up. When I stopped you i said, " Boy, how you gon come all late" and you said, "My bad, I didn't know forty year olds end so early!" I was like, ok. I'm officially old now....

Rest in peace cuz!

“ Javion/Von/Vonnie, we had a million nicknames for each other... since the day I met you, it was on ever since. We had sooo many good times/jokes/dance sessions...yes Von would gig! I admired how you loved your family and held your friends close. You are very special to me and I use present tense because you'll always hold a special place in my heart. My prayers are with the family and I appreciate how welcoming you all have been to me. Von, I know you'll be up there still trying to keep me in line. Love always...

“ Javion you were my one true male friend. You had a heart of gold and in this day and time that we now live in, that's so appreciated. I just want to lift your family up in Prayer. God please comfort Von's family as they say good bye physically. Von you touched many of lives, and you will live in our hearts forever. It's going to be hard driving down Outer Drive, or hearing you say "What up Doe" or "Fasho". Rest peaefully

“ Javion you've now departed to other side, and a new life awaits you. Your presence bought laughs and joy to all your friends and loved ones. I'm remembering back when you were at my hospital bed side in support of me getting well with my other friends and family. And we didn't even know each other that long, but that really showed me your good character. And the times we were In each others company there were plenty of smiles! It's now time for you to spread your wings and continue to smile down, watching over all your loved ones. You are gone physically but your spirit lives on...R.I.P "Von"

“ Life is pleasant. Death is peaceful. It's the transition that's troublesome. Sometimes, the Lord just takes blessed people because they've filled their purpose early. Everyone plays their own song. They sing their story to the world and leave behind a melody of memories. Sometimes... their song is cut short and ends too early. But that doesn't mean their music was any less sweet or that they left any less of an impression. God was only loaning you to us and he seen fit to call his angle home! R.I.P Javion... I love you and you will forever be missed...til we meet again!!!!

“ I met Javion in 4th grade at Hosanna-Tabor and we were great friends until high school. We played on the basketball team together (I was the guy who grabbed a rebound, passed to Javion, and got out of the way while he did his thing). We had sleepovers, played video games, and talked about the girls we liked. I was so shocked to hear this news. My thoughts and prayers go out to Javion's family. Just looking at this page shows how much impact he had in this world and the love everyone had for him.

RIP Old Buddy, take care in Heaven.
