

Mr. Jeffrey Dennis Brintley

July 7, 1959 - February 2, 2019

My Story:

Jeffery Dennis Brintley was born on July 7, 1959 to Joseph Brintley and Myrtle Brintley Smith, both preceded him in death.

Jeffery was the ninth child of 13 children. Jeffery was educated in the Detroit Public Schools system.

Jeffery also went to school to become a medical assistant. Jeffery worked in the medical field.

Jeffery married Geraldine Baxter. To this union one child was born, Dennis Brintley who preceded him in death.

Jeffery and Geraldine later divorced but remained close friends and always looked out for each other.

Jeffery loved to cook. He cooked every Sunday for Mama and Chris. Jeffery also loved to dance. He could out robot a robot.

Jeffery loved animals. He would tell Mom that the dogs would follow him home. So she told him next time follow the dogs and go to where they live.

Jeffery was a good uncle to all of his nieces and nephews and he loved his brothers and sisters

My friend, my brother we met Jeffrey when he moved on Seward, I thought he was just nosisy but what I found out he was just caring, loving and kind. Jeffrey was so excited when I became pregnant he said from this day on this child was his niecy Pooh. The Bar-B-Q's, the outings, the visits, I'm going to miss Jeffrey dearly. Prayers for everyone who came across Jeffrey a remarkable man. Michelle and Miss Mattie(niecy pooh)
