“Jeremiah was near and dear to my heart ... So respectful, a gentle giant in the physical and the spiritual. I loved him and he loved me. I will sorely miss him. There are no words to express the loss I know everyone who knew him must feel. I am praying for the Coats, Jackson, and Faulk family, the church families, the students, coaches, teachers (including Glenda Jones), friends for comfort, peace, healing for broken hearts, joy and more love.

*Sincerely,
Minister Charlotte Scales*

“ Mr Jeremiah Coats, so happy that the Lord afforded me the pleasure to be in your life while you were quite young. I loved making you laugh while hugging you. To know your life was centered around the Lord, your parents and family was a significant memory. This one hurts! Praying for your family, especially your parents and brother.. The music that was in your soul and your servant mentality is a blessing to have witnessed. Rest on Jeremiah! God has everything under control.

“ I only met Jeremiah this year working at the middle school. He had an infectious smile, great sense of humor and cared about his players! I heard him sing a couple times while he was in school and it always made me smile. Jeremiah was a genuine human being who's loss will be with us but who's beauty we will honor. ”

“ Br. Jeremiah was a well behaved young man, who respected his elders and the apple of his daddy’s eye. First Lady Coats called him her gentle giant, yet one who was obedient to his parents. A saved young man who was shy yet not ashamed to worship Jesus. Calvary will miss him, but for now he rests in Jesus.”Thank You” Pastor & First Lady Coats, for raising a fine young son.
