

Mr. Jeremy Allen Gendron

January 6, 1987 - June 10, 2025

Jeremy Allen Gendron was born January 6th, 1987 in Mount Clemens, Michigan to Daniel and Gail Gendron. Jeremy graduated as Valedictorian in 2005 from Algonac Community Schools. He ran on both the cross country and track teams. Jeremy's greatest talent though might have been in his musical ability. He played many instruments including sax, guitar, and drums. His abilities earned him the right to be Drum Major the last two years of high school. Jeremy then attended the University of Michigan. He graduated with a Bachelors in December of 2012 with a double major in Psychology and Russian. He chose to also serve his country and joined the Army Reserves in 2006, where he served for 19 years. Jeremy achieved the rank of Sergeant First Class, and he loved training soldiers as an NCO. He formed many strong relationships in his service there, but more importantly he met the love of his life, Jessica Kay Rabe, and they were married on September 27th, 2014. Together they have a wonderful son Mason. Jeremy enjoyed fishing and hunting, and he especially enjoyed his time camping with Mason. He loved playing video games and he even developed a knack at making cheese. Jeremy joined the telecommunications industry in 2013 as a tower climber. He went on to be a field surveyor and technician supporting multiple large telecom companies in the Michigan and Ohio area. He is predeceased by his father Daniel. He leaves cherished memories for his wife: Jessica; son: Mason; mother: Gail; siblings: Tina (Dale) Breloski, Scott (Misty) Gendron, Shaun (Karen) Gendron, Chantelle (Eric) Neumann, and Faith Gendron; and 6 nephews, 8 nieces, 2 great nephews, 2 great nieces, and many many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“ There are no words that can express the thoughts and feelings of this moment. My deepest sympathies go out to you and your family. We all know how much of a fighter you are and without a doubt will find the path through the darkness but nevertheless we are with you in spirit.

--many hugs, Kerri
