“ I just learned of Jermaine's passing. I was a business associate when he was employed at Alcoa. Though our business partnership ultimately fell aside, I always felt that Jermaine was a friend. We shared many stories of family and interests and I respected his work ethic and dedication to his girls and his friends. I wish the best for the family and friends that are still dealing with this loss.

“ I would like to wish the Byrd family my condolences of this tragic loss. Though I only knew Jermaine a short time as a work colleague at continental, he was a good person and I am honored to have known him. No words can explain why he was taken at this time, but just be assured he is in a better place with God!

God bless all of you. You are in my prayers!

“ I am very sorry about this. Jermaine was a very good friend as well as a very good Supply Chain Professional. Now, he is with God, and I know it, as I personally shared the Gospel to him many years ago he accepted Jesus in his heart. Jermaine, I will miss you, you were like a younger brother for me, as well as you were very funny. Today, I am working in Federal Mogul as he recommended me to this organization. Thank you Brother, my family will always remember you.
