

Mr. Jerome Robert Broner

March 31, 1942 - January 18, 2024

Born the 31st of March in 1942 in Detroit to the late Willie Broner Sr. and Lola Mae Broner. Jerry was the third of nine children born of that union. The Broner's raised their children in a Christian environment where they were taught to respect the Lord.

Jerry went to Southeastern High School where he participated in the ROTC Program and attained the rank of Master Sergeant which was the highest-ranking non-officer rank. He was the #1 Master Sergeant in the State of Michigan. He attended RETS Electronic school after high school to train in Electrical Engineering. Jerry retired from Tyco-Simplex in 2004 after 31 very successful years as an Electrical Engineer.

Jerry was joined in holy matrimony to Constance D. Knight. To this union two children were born Timothy Christopher, and Eric Anthony.

Jerry loved being around family. He never missed a family reunion local or out of town. Jerry's greatest past time was traveling. He enjoyed cruises to sunny destinations, and roaming around the states as well. Jerry was an avid photographer. He was one of the first people that owned a Polaroid Instamatic Camera. He was the family photographer. He also really enjoyed playing BidWiz with his cousins.

Jerry departed this life on the 18th of January 2024.
