I am totally devastated as I have just found out this evening that my best friend Jerome has passed away. I have been out of town the past week. Our friendship goes back over 24 years. Jerome was the most dedicated trusting friend in the world and he and I always joked that we were both the brothers to each other that we never had. Only God's strength and presence can fill the void that Jerome's passing is to me. I love you my brother and may we meet again!!

“ There are no word that can describe what we feel right now but we all know what you meant to us while you were here. The family will not be the same without you being here to help us with all the different things that we as a family went though and will continue to go through but to us you have been more than an uncle and we know that this goodbye is only for the moment but it will be hard knowing that you will not be here with us physcially until we meet in heaven and be reunited. RIP Uncle Daddy/ Uncle J-Rock and know that your work here with us has been done and we will continue doing what you have helped to instilled in us. Thanks for everything that you have done and we love will ALWAYS love and miss you..

Love,

Mane, Tracy, Kayla and Larry

“ My brother Jerome has made his transition and going home, there are so many memories with me (cortez), Jerome, harry, ortez, Rickey, Darryl sturges in which we all grew up together as kids. Jerome was a man of many men who served the military with me and my brother harry. He will truly be missed and the lord doesn't make mistakes. The lord was short on angels so he came back to gather more and Jerome was the one he truly accepted in the house of the lord. Jerome, please say hello to your mom, dad, my sister (charnita), and most of all my mom & dad, oh by the way my brother Ortez & Barrett & cousins are there and give them a great big hug for me, luv ya bro, in Jesus name, Amen
