“ Heartfelt Condolences to the Scarber Family.
Jerome will be missed for many reasons; but remembered for being a Gentleman, that big ole Smile, his Kind and Caring personality. He was indeed a Class Act.
We flew together for many years out of Washington, DC., and it was always a pleasure! You’re flying with the Angels now. Rest easy my friend.

I am delighted to share that I have warm memories of several flights with Jerome out of the DCA Domicile and even more Flight Attendant gatherings. I treasure his professionalism and his GQ personal style. My sincere condolences, and trusting that YOUR memories will help to fill and heal the void of losing him as time passes.

“ I was so excited touching down in Chicago last week and looking forward to seeing your warm smile at the Brotherhood dinner. Sadly, we got word the day before that you had left us. I am so blessed to have been in the presence of the ‘Richards’ and we felt your loving arms around us. Condolences to all of your friend and family. You will be missed. Ken West, Seattle.

“ Jerome was a member of our Brotherhood Birthday Dinner Club in Chicago. He attended on a regular basis and always shared great stories from his experiences while traveling abroad. We became good friends and I was thrilled when his mother met my mom during a special event in Chicago. I have great memories of Jerome particularly our visits to Costcos' which " let's go in for one thing"... became a really shopping spree. Jerome will be missed because of his wonderful personality, the travels and travel stories we shared, and our mutual love for our families. Love, Prayers and condolences to Jerome's mom and his wonderful family and hopes you will always cherish the laughter and joy that Jerome shared with all of us while we were together. “ To know Jerome was to love him. Unfortunately I only got to work once with him but his impression was long lasting! He was the consummate perfectionist who provided excellent leadership with a caring heart. He was always ever ready with a kind smile. As I mourn the loss of this gentle giant, I am exceptionally thankful that our paths crossed and for his deposit into the fabric of my life. May family and friends of Jerome find solace and comfort in knowing the Way which leads to Peace that surpasses ALL understanding. 🤍🙏

“ I am devastated, my friend Jerome and I lived across the street from one another on Ellis Street in Capitol Heights, MD. I called Jerome Wednesday and his voicemail was full so I sent a text, tried again yesterday and no response so this morning I Googled Jerome Scarber and was shocked at what I saw! We spoke on or near our birthdays and he was one of the kindest and most generous men I have known, I have so many fond memories of Jerome and I wish him peace. I last saw him in June 2016 when I visited Chicago. Rest well my friend.
