

Mrs. Jo Ella Clemens

October 23, 1944 - March 14, 2014

The Life of JoElla Clemens:

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." II Tim. 4:6-7

JoElla Clemens was born to the union of the late Josie Mae Mills and Joe Jackson on October 23, 1944 in Detroit, Michigan.

JoElla confessed Christ at an early age and later in life was confirmed and became a member of Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Detroit, Michigan.

In 1969, she was united in holy matrimony to Samuel L. Clemens. This union was blessed with two children: Lisa Renae Clemens and Mark Anthony Clemens. Later in life, she would find love again and shared precious memories with the late Samuel L. Foley.

JoElla received her high school diploma from Northern High School in Detroit, Michigan. She went on to continue her education and received training as a nursing assistant. She worked at the Northwest Nursing Home for a number of years and retired in 1994.

JoElla was known for her smile and kind words to everyone she would meet.

She lived her life without worry or doubt, knowing that everything would work out for her good.

She loved to dance, listen to music, roller skate and nurture her children and grandchildren. She loved life and lived life to the fullest.

She was called home by her heavenly father on Friday, March 14, 2014 at 4:31 p.m. in her home.
